CHURCH OF ST. ANNA

VISITATION REGULATIONS - valid from 1 July 2025

Dear Visitors,
You are entering the building of a functional church and an important monument whose administrator is the Roman Catholic parish of Kutná Hora - Sedlec. When staying in this area, please observe the following:

1. It is only possible to enter St. Anne's Church with a valid ticket.
2. Please enter the church area dressed appropriately. Appropriate clothing means appropriate length of overall clothing, sleeves and pants.
3. In order to maintain respect for the entire site and to protect the historical value of said church, the following is prohibited:
- Smoking, consumption of food or drink in the entire church area.
- Littering freely on the church premises. A trash can located outside the gate is used to dispose of trash.
- Entering the church area with animals, even on a leash or in a bag.
- Persons under the influence of alcohol or other addictive substances, as well as persons who harass or assault other visitors by their inappropriate social behaviour, are not allowed to enter or stay in the church premises. These persons may be asked to leave the church premises, in case of non-compliance with these instructions, cooperation with the Police of the Czech Republic will be ensured.
- Use of mobile phones in the church area.
- In the area of the church, enter the marked areas that are not accessible to the public (these areas are marked with wooden railings or visibly hanging ropes).
- Any manipulation or removal of interior elements is also prohibited.
4. When visiting the exteriors and interiors, visitors shall pay particular attention to uneven road surfaces, reduced passageways, or other hazards that are appropriate to the historic foundation of the monument. Visitors are obliged to take care of their safety, the safety of their children and other persons entrusted to them.
5. In addition, children under the age of 15 must be supervised by a responsible adult.

Failure to comply with these visitor regulations exposes the visitor to the risk of being denied entry to the monument or expelled from the premises of St. Anne's Church, without the right to a refund of the admission fee already paid.
If you wish to give us your comments, questions or feedback, please do not contact the church staff, but contact: info@sedlec.info or 326 551 049.
